2. Disability Inclusion Action Plan Update		Updates and actions provided below.
2.1 IC Care Presentation  IC Care is a small not-for-profit community organisation working in the Wollondilly and Camden Local Government Areas. This service supports frail older people (aged 65 years and over; 50 and over for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people) who require assistance with daily living to remain living independently at home and in the community. IC Care aims to connect clients who identify as rural, remote and/or socially isolated to services. The outcome being that clients will live in their homes longer without the need for supported accommodation, whilst also maintaining connections with the local community. IC Care supports the community by providing a diverse range of support services and social events for older people in the community.	Nicole Hanger	Presentation from Nicole Hanger, IC Care The AG members discussed the excellent service provision by IC Care. However, it was pointed out that Northern Village residents still face difficulties due to funding restrictions and service provision boundaries they must adhere to. Recommendation to People SRG: Write to State/Federal Government Ministers to advocate for better service delivery for home support, allied health and transport for seniors in the Northern Villages of Wollondilly. Moved by Star-Jade Laverty Second by Mhari Paterson Supported by all AG members
2.2 Anala Disability &amp; Support Services Presentation  Anala, are dedicated to supporting individuals and children living with disabilities, mental health challenges, and trauma. The organisation provides personalised assistance with a focus on intellectual disabilities, trauma, and mental health across all age groups. Anala takes a person-centered approach, offering tailored services and programs that benefit participants and their support networks, including	Ana Gamirez	Presentation from Ana Gamirez, Anal Disability & Support Services
