

Botanical name

ACACIA BINERVIA

COAST MYALL

Common name

ABOUT

MATURE HEIGHT

5 - 8 metres

MATURE SPREAD

5 - 8 metres

FLOWER COLOUR

Cylindrical pale to bright yellow spikes occur in a in spring.

DESCRIPTION

Small to medium evergreen long-lived Wattle tree with an upright spreading shape. Has blue green foliage that is slightly hairy and is bird attracting.

ENVIRONMENTAL REQUIREMENTS

Full or part sun in very well-drained soil. Drought tolerant, low maintenance.

Figure 1: Full size tree

Figure 2: Flower