

NAME _____

SCHOOL _____

CLASS _____ AGE _____

DID YOU KNOW?

Lyrebirds are shy birds and live in thick forests around Wollondilly, particularly around creeks. Lyrebirds are capable of imitating almost any sound. As well as their own calls, clicks and song, you will usually hear them mimicking loud clear sounds made by other birds and mammals, including humans. They are the totem animal of the Dawaral First Nations People.

